BASIC EXAM

The Basic exam is a pre-requisite for both certification and issuing of any Level 3 results. Candidates who have not previously passed the basic exam or hold current approved ISO9712 Level 3 qualifications will be required to sit the Basic Exam.

Candidates who have not previously passed the Basic exam must arrange to sit the Basic Exam prior to or after the Level 3 course.

Only the areas relating to the selected Level 3 course will be covered in detail during the course.

Refer to the AINDT Guide to Certification for Specific Details.

PRACTICAL EXAM

To align your Level 2 Practical examination dates with your level 3 exam dates, it is strongly recommended that all candidates sit the applicable practical exam during the course.

A practical examination is included with all 5 day single method Level 3 courses, if required.

Please tick the box if you would like to sit the practical examination in addition to the Main Method Exam:
